

Key:

- Driving topic for Social and Moral work
- Driving topic for Cultural work
- Driving topic for Spiritual work

Art
 Festival art using a variety of media. Including Mehndipatterns.
 Joseph Arkwright

Science
 KS2 and lower level 3 - Light
 Higher level KS3 - Waves and light Waves

Citizenship
 Children in Need
 The roles played by public institutions and voluntary groups in society and the ways in which citizens work together to improve their communities

Geography
 Human Geography - including trade links
 Geographical skills through use of maps, atlases globes etc.

Literacy
 Stories from other cultures (including characterisation and reading for meaning)
 Interview people from other cultures

PE
 Swimming, team games, gym

Music
 Celebration
 Music from different religions.

Which Festivals are important in Britain today?

Numeracy
 Number - Addition and subtraction
 Statistics - making and interpreting graphs
 Measurement - weight, capacity and volume

Computing
 KS2 - Use sequence, selection and repetition in programs; work with variables and various forms of input/output
 KS3 - Use 2 or more programming languages.

DT
 Festival foods

History
 How did Britain become a multi-cultural society?

RE
 Which festivals are important in Britain? (Including festival of light)

PSHCE
 Developing empathy
 Anti-bullying week
 Well-being topic - Taking part